

ENGLISH FOR MUSICIANS

English for Musicians at Missouri State University's fully accredited English Language Institute helps students achieve academic and career goals through customized English classes and opportunities for intercultural immersion.

In this innovative, one-of-a-kind program, international musicians improve their general English and music-specific vocabulary while continuing to grow musically by studying and performing with MSU music professors.

Admission Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in music
- Intermediate English proficiency (self-reported)

Master of Music at Missouri State University

Upon successful completion of the English for Musicians program, students will meet the English proficiency requirement for admission to the Master of Music Program at MSU, which means they will not need a TOEFL score.

The Master of Music degree offers the following concentrations: Composition; Conducting (Choral, Wind, or Orchestral); Music Education; Pedagogy (the science of teaching an instrument); and Performance.

CLASSES

English for Musicians:

- 12 non-credit hours per week
- Listening/Speaking & Reading/Writing for Music; Music Theory Review; Music History Review

Music Lessons

- 2 credit hours
- Can be applied to graduate program with approval

Ensemble

- 1 credit hour
- Can be applied to graduate program with approval

Academic Course

- MUS 241 - The Language of Music
- 3 undergraduate credit hours (no graduate credit)

Facilities

Missouri State University is home to state-of-the-art performance halls, rehearsal and practice facilities, classrooms, and recording studios. Three buildings on the MSU campus are dedicated to music:

Juanita K. Hammons Hall (pictured): This beautiful 2,220 seat performing arts center is one of the best in the region and features visiting artist recitals, the Springfield Symphony, and off-Broadway shows.

Ellis Hall: Ellis is home to the Music Department and includes a recital hall with a pipe organ, practice rooms, a 17-station piano lab classroom, and a Music Library featuring student access to audio media technology.

Wehr Band Hall: The band hall features rehearsal rooms, faculty offices, and a recording studio.

YOUR EXPERIENCE

Springfield: Located in the American Heartland, our city is beautiful, quiet, safe, and friendly.

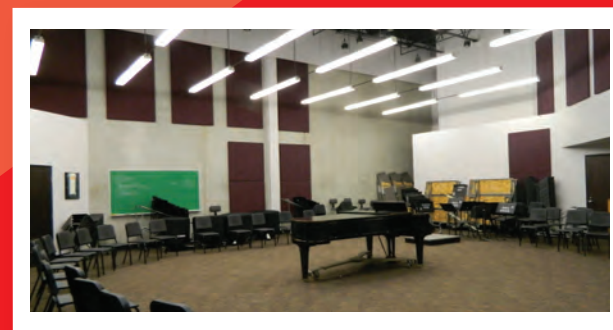

Housing: Double or triple occupancy housing in campus residence halls is available; prices will vary based on dormitory choice.

Food: 10-21 meals per week provided at campus dining centers is available; prices will vary based on meal plan choice.

Insurance: Health insurance is provided through Missouri State University during the program dates. Details available upon request.

Transportation: To and from the Springfield-Branson National Airport (SGF) is provided. Airfare is not included.

Visa: F-1 visa documents are provided. Visa and SEVIS fees are not included in program prices.

expression

innovation

excellence

Missouri State UNIVERSITY

ENGLISH FOR MUSICIANS

Contact Special Programs at ELI

✉ ELISpecialPrograms@MissouriState.edu

☎ (417) 836-3009

🌐 International.MissouriState.edu/ELI/Music.htm

Missouri State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/Minority/Female/Veterans/Disability Employer and Institution.