Price

StudentUniverse books hundreds of thousands of flights per year from 90+ airlines we are directly contracted with, which we leverage to save you money. We have access to fares that are not available to the general public.

Service

We assign a dedicated travel agent to every account. That means you have one point of contact with a direct email and phone number for all your travel needs. We learn your needs in and out and deliver based on what works for your programs.

Expertise

Established in 2000, we have a long history and great track record in the student travel space. Our team knows when and how to push airlines for better rates.
