England • France

Short-term Faculty-led Study Away Program • Summer Intersession • May 21 - June 4, 2015

Course Name: England and France Art and Architecture
Course Numbers: HID 302, IDS 297, IDS 397
Credit Hours: 3 undergraduate
Interior design students may substitute HID 302 (trip) for one of their required departmental history of interior design classes, HID 344 or HID 346.

Course Overview & Objectives:
Students will see and experience England and France in all its dimensions: art, music, architecture, history, fashion, culture, language, food, and the people. We will examine the built environment, landscapes, historic and iconic sites of antiquity through the present, sculpture, art, and monuments, historical preservation as well as modern day art and architecture. This study tour will enhance the educational experience of students in an infinite number of ways. These European countries are renowned for their impact on past design, but also influential on contemporary and cutting edge art and design, construction, materials, and applications. We will be particularly interested in touring chateaux, castles, and cathedrals.

Program Fee: $4,175
Roundtrip airfare, lodging, activities and site entrances, all breakfasts, 2 dinners, in-country and in-between country transportation, and Study Away student fee and health insurance.

Program Fee Excludes: Transportation to airport in the U.S., passport, some meals, incidentals/ misc personal expenses, and MSU tuition for 3 hours of undergraduate credit ($612). Both Missouri residents and non-residents pay the MO resident per-credit-hour tuition rate, per University policy.

Course Schedule

PRE TRAVEL MEETINGS
Pre-travel preparedness and instruction.

March 5, 2015: Getting to know one another and distribute the syllabus. Passport check, travel needs and supplies discussed. Discussion of the proposed itinerary. Assignment: due April 9, research paper on sites to be visited, topics assigned.

April 9, 2015: Student presentations of assigned topics, including copies for each student (to be graded). Discussion of travel safety, packing tips, money, question and answer session.

STUDY TOUR
This basic itinerary may be modified in the best interest of the trip. Prior to the trip, the final itinerary will be emailed to all participants.

France: A light orientation walk begins the Paris experience. During our stay in Paris we will visit the Louvre Museum, ascend to the top of the Eiffel Tower for spectacular views of the city of light, walk the Champs-Elysees, Notre Dame, Arc De Triomphe, Sainte Chapelle, Montmartre and Sacre Coeur, and Opera Garnier. We will leave Paris for Versailles and then on to Chartres so see the magnificent Cathedral. We will be transported to the Loire Valley to visit several chateaux, including Chenonceau and Chambord. We will stay in Amboise. The next major stop after traveling the exquisite landscapes of France, we will visit Mont St. Michel. From there we will go to St. Malo to board an overnight ferry, cross the English Channel to England, arriving in Portsmouth.

England: We will travel to Salisbury to see the Cathedral, Stonehenge, Windsor Castle, and on to London where we will spend several days. We will see: Westminster, tour Westminster Abbey, St. Paul’s Cathedral, British Museum, Victoria and Albert Museum, the famous Harrod’s Department store, Buckingham Palace, Kensington Palace, Tate Modern, Tower of London, Shakespeare’s Globe Theater, Parliament and Big Ben. We will leave London for Oxford, Blenheim Palace, and stay in the Cotswold area, Chipping Campden. We will return to London for our departure flight.

POST TRAVEL

June 25, 2015: Post-trip assignments due: reflection papers and journals. Assignments can be emailed or mailed (to be graded).

Course Credit & Requirements
Students must fulfill the following academic requirements:
- Attend scheduled meetings before, during, and after the trip.
- Attend all lectures, presentations, and relevant educational excursions provided during the trip.
- Organize, write, and present a research report on an assigned topic for each of the three countries visited.
- Maintain a daily reflection journal during the trip.
- Reflection paper and journals will be evaluated on depth and details. Include pictures, sketches, and other visuals.

Required text: No required textbooks other than travel books and books on the various cultures and sites to be visited.

Application & Payment Procedures
Missouri State University students and others who are approved by the Program Director may apply.

MSU Students: A non-refundable deposit of $625 will be billed to your University account upon application (deadline Jan. 15, 2015). You will receive a second billing on Feb. 20, 2015 and a final billing on March 20, 2015, for the balance of the program fee ($3,550). MSU course tuition ($612) will be billed to your University account separately and is due according to the university payment plan.

Visiting Students: A non-refundable deposit of $625 must be paid through the Study Away Storefront on or before Jan. 15, 2015. The balance of the program fee ($3,550) must be paid through the Study Away Storefront by April 3, 2015. MSU course tuition ($612) is also due by April 3, 2015 and must be paid at the bursar’s office or on-line through my.missouristate.edu.

In order to ensure participation in this Study Away program, each student must pay the entire program fee by May 1, 2015. Alternatively, a student may show proof of the financial aid that will pay for the fee. If a student does not pay the program fee, or does not show proof of financial aid that is sufficient to cover the fee, the student will be withdrawn from the Study Away program, dropped from the course, and his/her airline reservation will be canceled. Visiting students must also fully pay the tuition amount by April 3, 2015 in order to stay enrolled in the program. Estimated program fees are based on rates in effect on the publication date of this flyer and may be subject to change. Program participants agree to a potential increase of up to 10% if rates increase before or during travel.

Cancellation & Refund Policies
- Students who withdraw prior to April 10, 2015 will receive a refund of fees paid, less the $625 deposit and any non-refundable purchases made on his/her behalf.
- If a student must withdraw after April 10, 2015 for a bona fide medical reason, s/he will receive a refund of fees paid, less the $625 deposit and non-refundable expenses. A certificate of incapacitating illness or injury from a licensed physician is required.
- Students withdrawing voluntarily after April 10, 2015 will receive no refund.
- When the program begins, no refunds will be issued under any circumstances.
- All notifications of withdrawal must be made in writing and sent to the Program Director and the Director of Study Away Programs at the Study Away Office, Jim D. Morris Center, Suite 403.
- Non-payment of fees does not guarantee withdrawal.
